

Key findings from the SA Illicit Drug Reporting System interviews, 2018

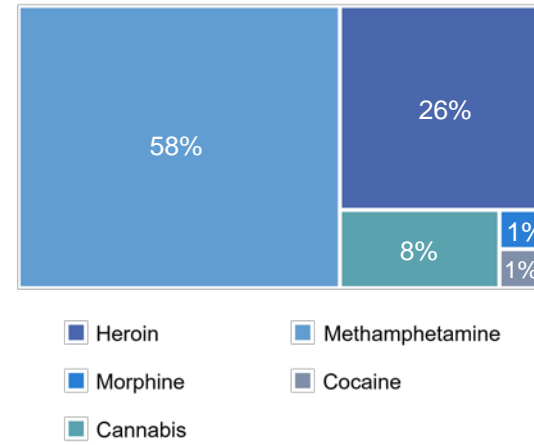

Annual cross-sectional interviews from 2000 to 2018 with approximately 100 participants who inject drugs per year, recruited from Adelaide, South Australia

High frequency use in the past six months

Drug of choice

Use in the past six months

Risks and harms

- 13% of the South Australia sample reported experiencing a non-fatal overdose in the last year
- 26% had heard of take-home naloxone programs
- 6% had been resuscitated by someone who had participated in a program

Main current treatment type

